

Communicate towards YOUR Professional Success

Chih Au, District Trainer

Why did you join Toastmasters?

Improve presentation skills?

Improve confidence ?

Enhance body language ?

Why did you join Toastmasters?

Seek greater success in your professional career?

Journey to Professional Success with Toastmasters

Tips

- Avoid unnecessary filler words by slowing down your pace of speech
- Use pauses to let your mind gather its thoughts
- Successful professionals know how to come across confident and appear credible to peers and seniors

Present to the point

Tips

- Less is more
- Pitch Structure - Problem, Solution, Benefits
- Successful professionals can draw attention quickly and get to the point in the shortest time possible.

A hand-drawn signpost with a white rectangular sign with a pointed right side. The sign is mounted on a wooden post. The text "Speak up with 3 Steps" is written on the sign in a bold, sans-serif font. "Speak up" is in a dark red color, and "with 3 Steps" is in black. The signpost is set against a light gray background with a thin red horizontal line above it.

Speak up with 3 Steps

Tips

- 1. Agree - 2. Opinion - 3. Action
- Successful professionals are able to speak up constructively amongst peers and seniors to help them stand out

Story Moment

Tips

- Hold shorter meetings to bring focus and attention.
- Wrap up with a summary to ensure a takeaway
- Successful professionals are able to hold meetings and bring conclusions in short time frames

Tips

- Begin with praising the good points
- Then provide constructive feedback
- Finish with a positive
- Successful professionals can help others do even better whilst keeping them motivated

Tips

- Sell with the story... then tell the idea
- Successful professionals know how to use stories to emphasise pain points to sell ideas.

Story Moment

Tips

- Give a “Point” and state the “Action”
- Successful professionals are forward thinkers and speak with the end in mind and “Call for action”.

Tips

- Speak slower in key parts to gain audience focus and attention
- Speak faster to inject excitement
- Smile when speaking to come across likeable
- Successful professionals know to add character in their verbal communication to influence and stand out from the crowd.

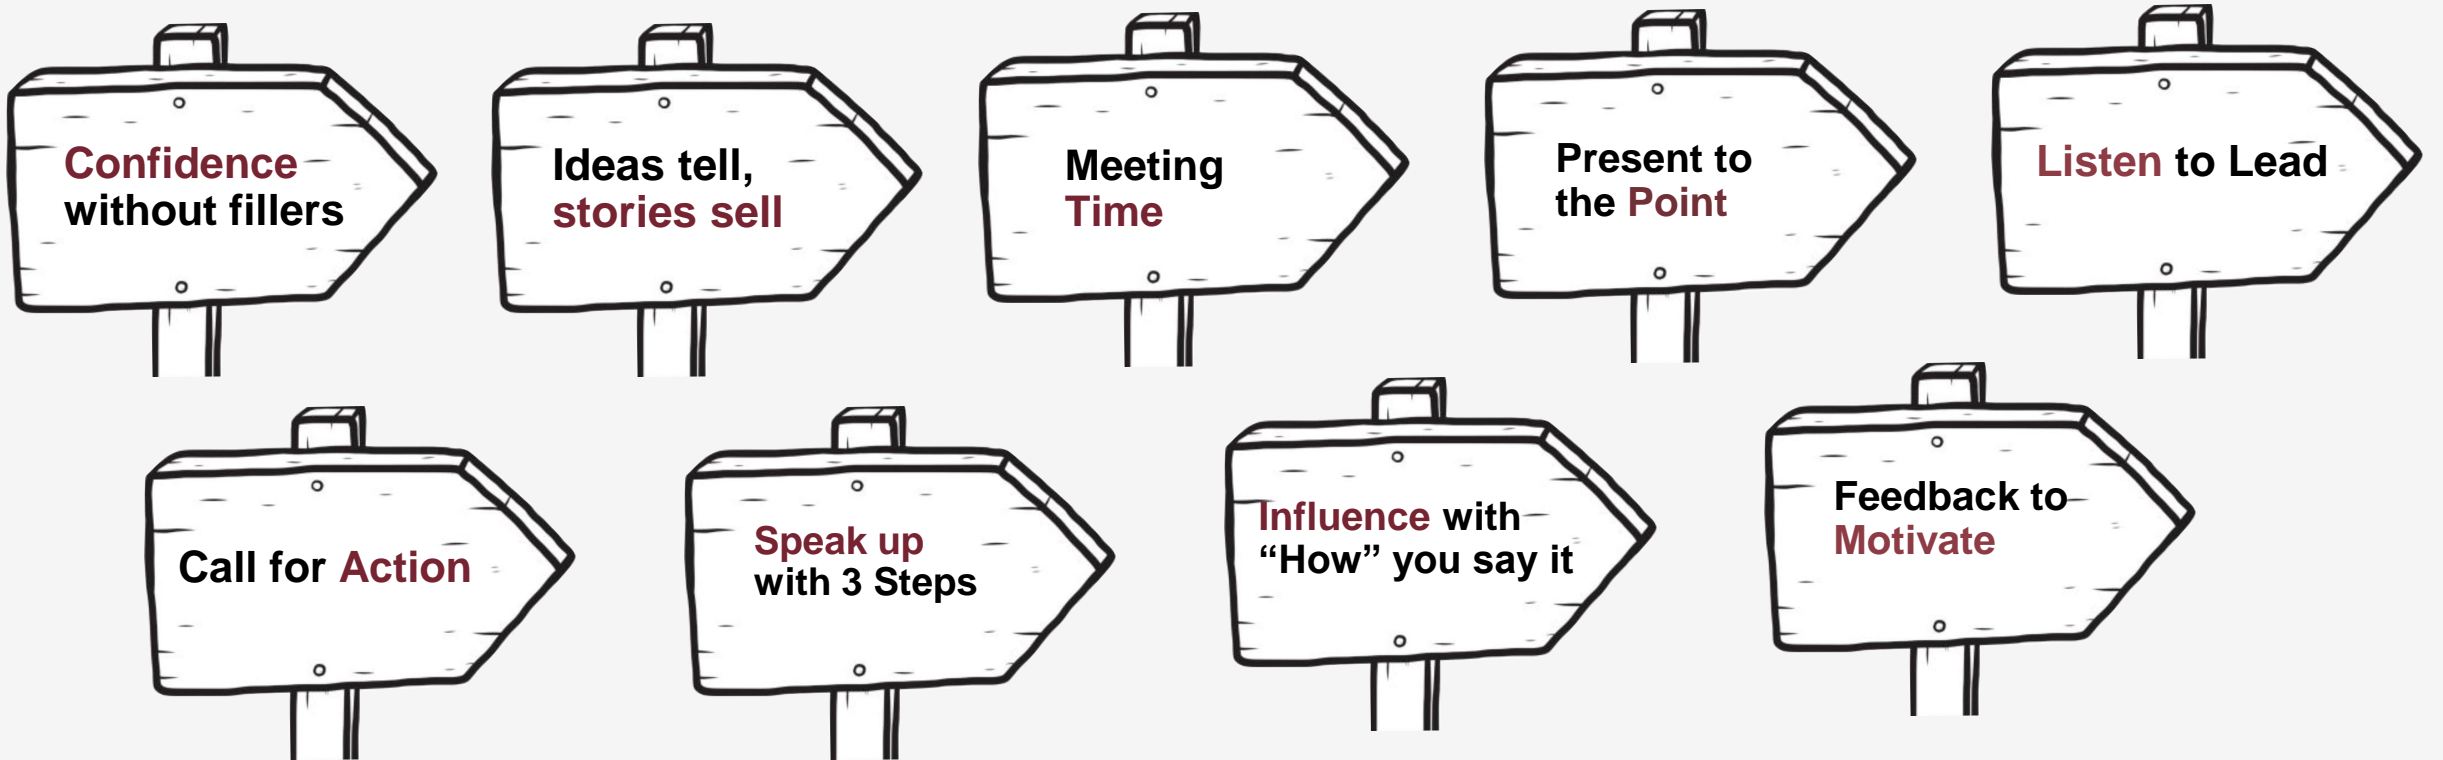

Tips

- Listen and ask for more information
- Write down and refer to points you agree
- Write down and refer to points you want to constructively feedback
- Successful leaders are able to build trust with others through active listening.

Story Moment

Professional Success with Toastmasters

Toastmasters = Gym for Professionals

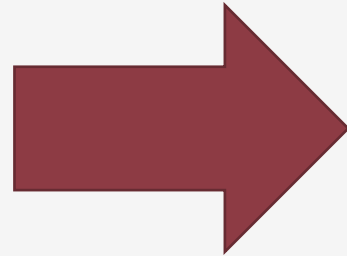

Communicate towards YOUR Professional Success

Let us hear your feedback!

Please scan the QR code and fill in the evaluation form

<https://www.d89toastmasters.com/2021tli>